

CFGL WRITING COMPETITION

Mar 16-20 / Mar 23-27 (5 DAY PROGRAM)

This intensive course offers students a unique opportunity to receive personalized attention and elevate their individual writing skills. Junior students will analyze sample short stories and craft an original narrative based on a specific theme, while Senior students will explore various essays and generate their own pieces based on assigned genres.

The CFGL Writing Competition

At the end of the workshop, every student's final piece will be submitted to the prestigious CFGL (Centre for Future Global Leaders) Writing Competition in April.

Results: 1st through 5th place winners will be officially announced on the CFGL website.

Awards: Winners will receive an official Certificate of Achievement from CFGL.

Key Activities of CFGL

International Academic Competitions: This annual global event engages approximately 6,000 participants and evaluates student achievement in three categories: Vocabulary, Mathematics, and Essay Writing. Outstanding students are formally recognized through awards.

Spirit of Service (Service Project Competition): This competition invites students to design and propose original service projects that address community needs. Selected proposals may receive financial support for implementation.

Scholarships and Mentoring: Scholarships and mentoring programs are offered to support students from diverse backgrounds in their pursuit of higher education, providing both financial assistance and academic or career guidance.

Educational Philosophy of CFGL

Academic Excellence + Character Development: CFGL is committed to fostering both academic excellence and strong character, preparing students to become ethical and responsible leaders.

Community Engagement: Through curated volunteer and leadership opportunities, CFGL empowers students to apply their learning in ways that meaningfully support their communities.

Value in College Admissions

Participation in CFGL competitions and leadership programs is widely recognized as a strong addition to students' extracurricular profiles, particularly for applicants to leading U.S. universities.
